

Each address below is a hyperlink so to visit, select the address, then press 'Ctrl+click'.

1. www.michelecarragherembroidery.com

If you are interested in embroidery on clothes or in film or television, then this site will provide plenty of inspiration. Michele Carragher trained as a fashion designer and as a leather worker. She moved into Textile conservation and then costume for film and television. A Wonderful collection of hand embroidered costumes for historical productions.

2. <https://www.sarahhomfray.com>

Sarah Homfray Embroidery

Sarah is an RSN-trained tutor and designer who offers online classes and supplies for various embroidery styles. On her Free Resources page you will find extremely useful downloadable information sheets on goldwork/metal threads, tambour work, shisha work as well as free design templates.

3. www.meredithwoolnough.com.au

Meredith Woolnough is an Australian contemporary textile artist who uses her sewing machine and free motion stitching to create works inspired by the patterns, structures and shapes found in plants, coral, cells and shells. Meredith's embroideries represent both the robust beauty and elegant fragility of life. Her site has images of some amazing pieces of embroidery based on leaves, coral and other elements of the natural world. Inspiring work!

